

Joan Lewis Park

Lewis Park is a 2.5 acre neighborhood park. The park features: bandstand, youth artificial turf soccer field, picnic shelters, two playgrounds, and outdoor basketball courts. The park was constructed utilizing a Community Development grant. The park was dedicated in 1989 and named for Joan Lewis who had the vision and determination to insure that the park became a reality.

Location

Dalton, GA 30720

Reservation/Rental

Playground, soccer fields and stage.

Directions to facility

Hours of Operation